Cocktail of the month

The Cosmopolitan

This popular recipe is a delicious balance of citrus and berry flavours and with Sex and the City fever everywhere it would be a travesty not to share the ingredients of Carrie Bradshaw's favourite cocktail with you..

Ingredients:
2 Measures Vodka
1 Measure Cointreau

1 Measure Cranberry Juice
0.5 Measure Lime Juice

Shake all the ingredients together with plenty of ice in a cocktail shaker. Strain and serve in a chilled martini glass.

Available to order at any event at 195 Piccadilly.

World Cup Fever

Love it or loathe it, football is set to dominate the summer months and here at 195 Piccadilly, we're ready for kick off. The Princess Anne Theatre, David Lean Room and Run Run Shaw are all fantastic spaces to watch the games on a big screen and we've come up with the perfect menus for any footie match. Mini burgers and hot dogs, nachos, bowl foods of curry, macaroni cheese and fish and chips are just some of the treats in store for fans!

Check out the match schedule at

Contact the team for more information and to check availability on 020 7292 5811.

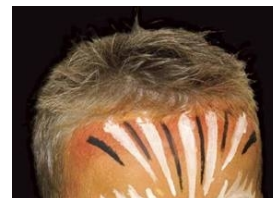

BOO! Productions

If you're looking to entertain clients and families this year, then you need to know about two must-see films coming out this summer.

Shrek Forever After and Toy Story 3 provide the perfect excuse for a fun day out and Boo! Productions are offering some great themed entertainment packages to go with these fantastic 3D screenings.

Children's event specialists Boo! can transform the David Lean Room into a fabulous film-based setting with amazing characters, inspiring scenery and imaginative entertainment. 195 Piccadilly can then provide the film to the screen in the fabulous Princess Anne Theatre with 3D facilities.

For more details, contact Boo! directly on 020 7287 9090, visit their website www.booproductions.com, or contact the Events team at 195 Piccadilly. Quote 'BAFTA 195 Piccadilly newsletter' to ensure you get the best available rates.

Recipe of the Month

With tea parties still the hot topic this spring we've asked Head Chef Anton Manganaro to share his famous macaroon recipe with you. Often served as a dessert canapé here at 195, they are a very popular item on our seasonal menu...

Ingredients:
400g ground almonds
440g icing sugar
200g egg whites
280g caster sugar

Sieve almonds and icing sugar together twice so it's a fine powder. Put the eggs in a bowl and whip together with the caster sugar until light and fluffy. Fold the wet and dry ingredients together until it's a creamy consistency with a shine. Pipe the mixture onto greaseproof paper on a baking tray and allow to dry for up to 3 hours until a light crust has appeared on the top. Place in the oven and bake 12 minutes at 180°C. Leave to cool.

For the Ganache:
200g of double cream
200g white chocolate

Boil 200g double cream in a saucepan and slowly pour onto 200g of melted white chocolate. Whisk together until pipeable. Match up the macarons into pairs and pipe the ganache onto each macaroon and sandwich together.

For the best results freeze and defrost on day of consumption...and enjoy!

Try them here as Petits Fours on our dinner menu.

Run Sion Run!

Our very own General Manager Sion Parry ran the Virgin Marathon on Sunday 25 April for MS Society and finished in a commendable 4 hours and 12 minutes. If you would like to show your support for MS Society and Sion's hard work, then click on the link below to leave a donation:

Competition Winner

Last month we asked you to finish the strap line: BAFTA 195 Piccadilly is the perfect venue for an event because...?

Linda Wadkin from Courtaulds (UK) Ltd is the lucky winner of a bottle of Taittinger Champagne, with her response:

BAFTA 195 Piccadilly is the perfect venue for an event because every event planner deserves an award, so should feel right at home!

Meet the team

Monika Kuszneruk - Financial Controller

Monika was born in Poland and spent her childhood in the beautiful city of Lublin. During her teens she trained to be a basketball player for a few years but decided to stop, despite the pleas from her coach and parents!

Monika focused on her studies and successfully achieved the Polish equivalent of A-Levels in Finance and Accounting, before doing a Degree in Finance and International Trade at the Polytechnic of Radom in Poland.

She came to London nine years ago – having only planned to stay six months! When settled, she had various jobs and started her ACCA studying, followed by her first accountancy job in Bromley Borough.

After applying for the role as Financial Controller here at 195 Piccadilly, Monika received a phone call during her 30th birthday party to find out she'd got the job. She's been here ever since and thoroughly enjoyed her time so far.

Outside of the office, she loves going to the cinema, theatre, concerts and museums. She also likes to meet up with friends on a regular basis and is a very keen reader – often suggesting the next best book to read in the office!

Monika is happiest when she has a proper work/life balance. She loves working as an accountant as well as spending free time with her beloved 5-year-old daughter Agata.
