Notes to the Financial Statements 22
This has been a significant year in our development, with our support of the Film, Television and Video Games industries reaching new levels of activity.

Our Learning and Events programme has flourished, with 47% more events staged in 2008, attracting growing audiences in more parts of the country than ever before. Meanwhile, our Awards continued to set the gold standard for industry practitioners everywhere, with glittering ceremonies held in London, Glasgow and Cardiff.

Through a burgeoning library of webcasts, image galleries, a searchable Awards database and more, our website has become a valuable resource for communicating our activity to the world, and 2008 saw a 35% increase in new visitors to www.bafta.org. We’ve also begun to digitise the wealth of content held in our Archive, to best preserve and share these historic treats.

The phenomenal skill and experience within our membership are among our most valuable assets, and we took significant steps in 2008 to utilise this by engaging them in our activity, most notably the Mentoring scheme which launched in July.

The formulation of our Communications strategy allowed us to focus on raising awareness of our charitable aims. Its implementation will bring our activity to an even wider audience through more targeted communications and key partnerships.

Whilst our headquarters at 195 Piccadilly continued to provide a valuable income stream, we also began to develop our first Fundraising strategy, to assist our growth and financial stability.

Such activity has contributed to a healthy and vibrant year for the Academy. However, the difficult economic climate will result in us consolidating our activity in 2009 whilst communicating it more effectively.

David Parfitt
Chairman of the Academy

1.1 About BAFTA

1.1.1 BAFTA now
Our objective is to support, develop and promote the art forms of the moving image, by identifying and rewarding excellence, inspiring practitioners and benefiting the public.

As a charitable organisation, giving our members, the industry and the public the opportunity to learn first-hand from leading practitioners in the Film, Television and Video Games industries, via our year-round Learning & Events programme, is one of our key activities.

Amongst our other activities are our annual Awards ceremonies, held in the UK, which set the gold standard for industry practitioners everywhere.

1.1.2 History
The Academy was formed on 16 April 1947 when a group of the most eminent names in the British film production industry gathered in a room at the Hyde Park Hotel under the newly appointed chairmanship of the great British film director, David Lean. Their fundamental aim was “to recognise those who had contributed outstanding creative work towards the advancement of British film.”

Eleven years later, the British Film Academy merged with the Guild of Television Producers and Directors to form The Society of Film and Television Arts. David Lean donated royalties from Bridge on the River Kwai and Doctor Zhivago to The Society of Film and Television Arts. This, along with the donation of royalties from HRH The Queen, enabled the Society to move in 1976 from its office suite in Great Portland Street to 195 Piccadilly, which was converted to house two preview theatres and a meeting place for members.

In 1976 the Society officially became known as The British Academy of Film and Television Arts. The Academy continues to promote and support excellence in the film and television industries, and from 2005, the Video Games industry.

1.1.3 Subsidiaries
The Academy’s wholly owned trading subsidiary, BAFTA Management Limited, provides facilities and services to the Academy and other users of the Princess Anne Theatre, the Run Run Shaw Theatre and the David Lean Room at 195 Piccadilly. BAFTA Management Limited transfers its trading surpluses to the charity under Gift Aid.

In April 2007, a wholly owned subsidiary of BAFTA Management Limited was formed, BAFTA Productions Limited (BPL) is an independent production company which supports BAFTA’s charitable objectives through the creation of broadcast and internet content. This content includes coverage of the Academy’s Awards ceremonies and events staged across the UK, documentaries and features about film, television and video games. BPL is a member of the Producers Alliance for Cinema and Television, and any surpluses are returned, through Gift Aid, to BAFTA.

1.2 The Organisational Structure

1.2.1 Governance of BAFTA
The Academy is governed by a Board of Trustees with members of the Board acting as both its charity trustees and company directors. The Board meets on a monthly basis to review the group accounts, receive reports and updates from the executive and committees, debate issues and agree strategies for implementation.

The Film, Television and Video Games committees operate under the delegated authority of the Board and oversee the Academy’s moving image mission in their respective sectors. The activity of Scotland and Cymru are overseen by the BAFTA Scotland and BAFTA Cymru committees, who act under delegated responsibility from the Board. The role of Council, which meets three times a year, is to debate issues and advise the Board of Trustees on a whole range of issues affecting the Academy. Elections for the sector committees and Council are held annually. The election process follows strict rules and procedures and election results are subject to scrutiny by independent advisers.

In addition to the sector committees and Council, the Board of Trustees has constituted the following committees, each with its own terms of reference, in accordance with the articles of association:
— Children’s Awards and Events Committee;
— Commercial Committee;
— Learning & Events Committee;
— Finance and Audit Committee; and — Foundation Committee.

Two additional committees, Web and Archive, were established in 2008 and will be formally constituted in 2009.

1.2.2 Management of BAFTA
Day to day management of the operations and activities of the Academy is delegated by the Board of Trustees to the Chief Executive and Chief Operating Officer who are the senior managers of the Academy’s staff.

1.3 Related Parties

1.3.1 David Lean BAFTA Foundation
A number of the Academy’s officers and Board members are also directors and trustees of the David Lean BAFTA Foundation. This charity shares similar objectives to the Academy, as well as its principal contact address and administrative function.
2.1 BAFTA

2.1.1 Objectives

— To conduct a nationwide Learning & Events programme that informs the public, inspires practitioners and encourages debate;
— To give Awards annually and set accepted standards of excellence for industry and audience alike;
— To maximise our membership’s skill-base by engaging them in our Learning & Events activity;
— To raise the public profile of our Archive content;
— To increase the number of unique visitors to bafta.org by providing a diverse range of content;
— To devise and implement a Communications Strategy to raise awareness of our charitable aims and maximise our audience reach;
— To preserve a sound financial base to support these charitable activities, by operating an active and profitable trading company;
— To observe our values as listed below:
  — Trust and credibility, which derive from an expert and engaged voting membership;
  — Shared standards of excellence between practitioners of the moving image;
  — British benefit, in terms of both British industries and British audiences;
  — Financial stability, not to be pursued at the cost of integrity.

2.1.2 Activities and Achievements

Our website, www.bafta.org, has enjoyed remarkable success this year. A significant increase of online resources, including more than 100 individual Events and Awards webcasts, editorial and archive imagery, helped increase our web audience, with 695,537 unique visitors – up 35% on 2007. This new audience also increased the impact and reach of our Learning & Events programme. For the first time, we digitised and shared some of our Archive treasures with the public, with audio recordings, moving image footage and Awards imagery all made available online.

We delivered four high-quality Awards ceremonies, celebrating excellence in Film, Television, Television Craft and Children’s, The Film and Television Awards ceremonies were televised, communicating our gold standard to the public. Two additional Awards ceremonies in Scotland and Wales celebrated the best moving image creative achievements in those countries.

We devised and began to implement strategies in three areas. Our Communications strategy aims to raise awareness of our charitable status; our Fundraising strategy will underpin our future development; and the strategy for our role in industry learning will establish BAFTA’s support in the career development of established and aspiring practitioners.

A successful financial year has underpinned and helped increase our charitable activity.

2.1.3 Future plans

— To establish Fundraising as a core income activity for the Academy;
— To reach new audiences by implementing a communications strategy which promotes our charitable purpose, through bafta.org and video games activity;
— To produce seven first class Awards ceremonies;
— To deliver a first class programme of events for members and public from 195 Piccadilly which helps to develop the industry and celebrates creative excellence from our moving image culture and heritage;
— To deliver a broad range of events in the English regions, Scotland and Wales;
— To webcast at least 30 of the events in the 195 and regional programmes;
— To engage effectively with the target groups of Young People and Career Starters through the mentoring and other core Learning initiatives;
— To communicate the presence and purpose of the BAFTA Learning Strategy to as broad an audience as possible through the Access All Areas banner;
— To establish fundable projects to aid the digitisation of the BAFTA archive which will be placed on bafta.org;
— To maintain the cap on membership numbers whilst targeting and signing-up well-qualified new members;
— To increase the impact, interest and audience of bafta.org;
— To deliver three first class Awards broadcasts, taking greater creative control of each, and other new broadcasts through BAFTA Productions.

2.2 Learning and Events (L&E)

2.2.1 Objectives

— To implement our Learning strategy;
— To begin to establish BAFTA as the leading charity working to increase access to industry expertise, inspiring and informing learners of all ages;
— To help develop an accomplished, vibrant and diverse workforce for the UK’s Film, Television and Video Games industries by sharing expertise and developing relationships within the industries.

2.2.2 Activities and Achievements

In 2008, we rationalised and refined our L&E programme to promote our events as opportunities to share industry expertise with our target audiences. One notable example was the launch of a BAFTA Mentors scheme to assist young people from disadvantaged backgrounds on various media projects.

Across the UK, we staged 166 BAFTA events in total, a 47% increase on 2007. Of those, 110 took place in London and 56 in the Regions. Among the London-based highlights...
2.2 Learning and Events continued

2.2.2 Activities and Achievements continued were: an international weekend celebrating cinema from the Arab world; A Life in Pictures featuring Brian Cox and Robert Carlyle; A Life in Television with Bird and Fortune, Tony Garnett and Paul Watson, and a project with the National Children’s Bureau for children in and leaving care.

Highlights for regional audiences included: events at the Latitude Festival Suffolk, where we screened a silent film Moulin Rouge with live orchestra accompaniment and hosted Q&As with Gurinder Chadha, Joseph Fiennes and Liam Cunningham; me and my movie competition workshops with the BBC, including events at The Thames Festival, one of the UK’s largest family festivals; A Life in Pictures Mike Leigh in Brighton; BAFTA Families events on storyboarding and special effects, and the Short Sighted initiative which guides short filmmakers on exhibition and distribution strategies.

The profile of our activity was successfully raised thanks, in part, to our work with 66 strategic partners around the country. More than 27,000 people came to our events, with an average attendance capacity of 77%. By filming and webcasting many of our events, we were then able to reach a global audience of 180,000 with our activity.

Our year-round screenings programme gives members the opportunity to experience a diverse range of international filmmaking. We were encouraged to find that 71% of our members rate the screenings programme either good or excellent.

2.2.3 Future plans
— To focus on developing an audience of on-line learners – aiming for 250,000 online views;
— To maintain strategic partnerships and develop new ones to access a broader audience;
— To formalise our evaluation procedure;
— To develop curriculum-based resources;
— To continue to grow our audiences at public events, members screenings and online.

2.3 Archive

2.3.1 Objectives
— To begin digitisation of the BAFTA Archive in order to collect, preserve and provide easy access to its content;
— To develop and implement a refreshed Archive intake policy;
— To raise the public profile of BAFTA Archive resources and services;
— To preserve and care for the Academy Archive.

2.3.2 Activities and Achievements
Our digitisation programme continued, building the capture of archive material including audio, print and photographic imagery. We successfully digitised between 30–40% of our archive audio material and 30% of our photographic stills. A commercial rate card has now been devised for supplying archive content to external parties.

We made some of our Archive material available to the public for the very first time through the launch of the 100 Collection, an online library of 100 black and white archive images, as well as online resources celebrating the work of Lord Attenborough and Sir David Lean.

Internal activity included a review of our internal Archive policy, with new requirements communicated across the organisation, as well as the provision of resources and media assets across and into a number of BAFTA activities.

We initiated communication with other organisations involved with digital archive development and screen media heritage, with a view to developing strategic partnerships. One such partnership was established with FOCAL International, with whom we hosted the UNESCO World Audio Visual Archive Day.

2.3.3 Future plans
— To take a central role in the national agenda for protecting and sharing the heritage of British Film, Television and Video Games;
— To secure funding to progress and expand the BAFTA Archive digitisation programme;
— To develop commercial relationships and generate revenue through content licensing and sales;
— To identify and work with “best” partners to research and develop relevant resources for education and wider public consumption.

2.4 Awards

2.4.1 Objectives
— To produce seven world-class Awards ceremonies;
— To deliver three first-class Awards broadcasts, taking greater creative control of each.

2.4.2 Activities and Achievements
The Orange British Academy Film Awards took place at the Royal Opera House on 10 February and were hosted by Jonathan Ross. Among the 2000 attendees were winners including Daniel Day Lewis, Joel Coen, Marion Cotillard, Javier Bardem and Diablo Cody, and citation readers such as Daniel Craig, Emily Blunt, Orlando Bloom and Kate Hudson.

Activity took place across the country in the lead up to the event, including the 60 Seconds of Fame short filmmaking competition; public voting for the Orange Rising Star Award and a regional tour of nominated films.

On the night, members of the public were able to watch a live broadcast of the ceremony in the nearby Covent Garden Piazza, and were even joined by some of the... winners who gave live interviews after coming off stage.

The Film Awards broadcast peaked at 3.6 million viewers, whilst our web traffic around the event peaked at 160,000 new visitors in the two weeks either side of the ceremony.

The British Academy Television Awards supported by Sky+ took place at the London Palladium on 20 April and were hosted by Graham Norton. Among the 1300 attendees were nominees including Bruce Forsyth, James Corden, Simon Amstell, Eileen Atkins, Judi Dench, Harry Hill and Kierston Wareing, and citation readers including Joanna Lumley, John Hurt, Denise Lewis, John Simm and Sanjeev Baskhar.

Sky+ also sponsored the Audience Award, a public vote for their favourite programme of the year, which went to Gavin & Stacey. An average of 5.6 million viewers tuned in to the Television Awards broadcast, a 12% increase on the previous year.

We produced nearly 40 individual webcasts of red carpet and backstage interviews which are all available to view on bafta.org.

The British Academy Television Craft Awards were held at The Dorchester on 11 May and hosted by Claudia Winkleman. Among the 470 attendees were winners including writers Jimmy Perry and David Croft, editor Lucia Zucchetti, cinematographer Rob Hardy and Titles designer Tal Rosner, plus citation readers including Imelda Staunton, Greg Wise, Peter Capaldi and Sally Hawkins.

Webcasts of red carpet and backstage interviews are available to view on bafta.org.

The EA British Academy Children’s Awards were held at the London Hilton on 30 November and hosted by Keith Chegwin. Among the 650 attendees were winners including the Chuckle Brothers, presenter Justin Fletcher, and the winning teams behind animation Charlie And Lola and the Lego Batman video game. Citation readers included Russell T Davies, Gemma Arterton, Danni Minogue and Charlie Higson.

The BAFTA Kids Vote invited under-14s to choose the best film, programme, game or website. After more than 180,000 votes were cast, US TV show Hannah Montana emerged as the winner. The Awards were also supported by CBBC Me and My Movie in association with BAFTA, a short filmmaking initiative for 6–14-year-olds. Filmmaking workshops took place throughout the year, resulting in more than 500 entries. 13-year-old Leah Cooper won for her film The Prank.

Webcasts of ceremony footage, red carpet and backstage interviews are available to view on bafta.org.

The BAFTA Cymru Film, Television and Interactive Media Awards took place at the Wales Millennium Centre on 27 April and were hosted by Gethin Jones. Among the 1000 guests were winners including Ioan Gruffudd, Anne-Marie Duff and Dr Who writer Steven Moffat, whilst citation readers included Mike Leigh, Ruth Jones and Josie D’Arby.

The Lloyds TSB BAFTA Scotland Awards took place at Glasgow’s City Halls on 9 November and were hosted by Edith Bowman. Among the 800 attendees were winners including Ken Stott, Robert Carlyle and make-up artist Morag Ross, and citation readers including Robbie Coltrane, Jenni Falconer and Michelle Gomez. Lloyds TSB Scotland sponsored the Audience Award for Most Popular Scottish Presenter, which went to Lorraine Kelly. The ceremony was broadcast live online, enabling many more people to enjoy the proceedings.

The British Academy Video Games Awards did not take place in 2008 after a decision was taken to move the ceremony to March 2009.

The full list of winners is available at bafta.org.

2.4.3 Future plans

— To produce five high-profile Awards ceremonies;
— To produce two Awards ceremonies in Scotland and Wales;
— To develop the international reach of our Video Games Awards;
— To build on the international relevance of our Film Awards;
— To develop our web activity, making bafta.org the primary destination for immediate and comprehensive Awards coverage.

2.5 Other initiatives

2.5.1 Objectives

— To increase access to the skill and expertise of our membership by engaging them with our Learning & Events programme;
— To launch a Fundraising Strategy to ensure our long-term financial stability;
— To devise a Communications Strategy to raise awareness of our charitable aims;
— To extend the reach of bafta.org by attracting more unique visitors;
— To develop the breadth and range of our exhibitions at 195 Piccadilly;
— To maintain the cap on membership numbers whilst making more spaces available for highly qualified new members;
— To improve the Academy’s environmental impact;
— To work more closely with the American branches of the Academy;
— To develop relations with other industry organisations.
2.5 Other initiatives continued

2.5.2 Activities and Achievements
We successfully engaged 30 BAFTA members in our first ever Mentoring scheme;

We appointed a Fundraising Manager to develop a comprehensive Fundraising Strategy, which was approved and adopted. We also set up our first fundraising function. Our second Screen Dreams auction in association with MediCinema generated £69,000. We also appointed a Communications Officer to develop a comprehensive Communications Strategy.

As previously reported, we attracted 35% more unique visitors to bafta.org. In addition to the webcasts and publishing of exclusive archive material, we also: re-designed the members’ area homepage, offering an interactive members’ directory and industry news feeds; conducted the Council elections online for the first time, and established our presence on external websites such as Facebook and Twitter.

Our exhibitions activity at 195 Piccadilly was very well received and included Alexander Korda film posters, Video Games concept illustrations, Ealing comedy posters and illustrator Noma Bar’s portraits.

We created a new category of Non-Voting membership, for members who no longer wished to vote. This created a small number of voting places, which allowed us to accept a number of new members. For the first time in several years, we also invited prominent individuals from the industries to join the Academy, including recent BAFTA nominees and winners.

Several productive discussions with our American affiliates paved the way for a complete review and revision of our working relationship which will be completed in 2009.

We retained our Carbon Neutral status and looked at in-house good practice and established links with several moving image industry organisations, including the Leadership on Diversity Group.

2.5.3 Future Plans
— To establish fundraising as a primary source of income to support our charitable activities;
— To secure a new income stream for bafta.org;
— To undertake a comprehensive building’s review to assess our future building requirements.

2.6 BAFTA Management Ltd

2.6.1 Objectives
— To maximise the commercial opportunities arising from the charity’s brand and status;
— To provide facilities and services for BAFTA members;
— To develop 195 Piccadilly as a venue for screenings, conferences and a variety of other business entertaining or party functions, in conjunction with the Capital Group.

2.6.2 Activities and Achievements
We continued to develop 195 Piccadilly as a premier venue for screenings, conferences and a variety of other business entertaining or party functions, in conjunction with the Capital Group. A successful year saw a net contribution of £1,041,484 – an increase of 26% on the previous year.

Sponsorship and Broadcast revenue in 2008 was £1,380,277 representing a 9% reduction on that achieved in 2007 (£1,519,478). This is largely due to the re-timing of the Video Games Awards ceremony, which has been moved to March 2009.

BAFTA Publishing output comprised Awards publications, as well as five issues of our members’ magazine ACADEMY and numerous L&E publications. Advertising and supplier revenue from our Awards publications was up nearly 5% to £629,118, whilst we achieved £17,809 of advertising revenue on ACADEMY (net of commission paid).

We continued to provide both individual and corporate membership services and enjoyed a significant growth in corporate membership income of 78%. We also introduced BAFTA Events, an event production service.

2.6.3 Future Plans
— To generate sufficient profits to gift aid to the charity for investment in the Learning & Events programme and related web initiatives;
— To generate sufficient profits to gift aid to the charity for investment in 195 Piccadilly, which continues to generate valuable income for the Academy as an events venue and members meeting place;
— To secure long-term sponsors for both the Television and Video Games Awards.
2.7 BAFTA Productions Ltd

2.7.1 Objectives
— To produce broadcast and internet programming to support BAFTA’s charitable objectives.

2.7.2 Activities and Achievements

We successfully produced the British Academy Television Awards supported by Sky+ broadcast which went out as live on BBC One to an average of 5.6 million viewers.

We also produced over 100 individual webcasts for bafta.org. Nearly 40 of them were produced around the Television Awards, including red carpet arrival and backstage winners interviews, whilst others included the Annual Television Lecture given by Patrick McKenna, our Philip French tribute, a number of events in our A Life in Pictures strand: Anthony Minghella, Mike Leigh, Brian Cox, Paul Watson, Cate Blanchett and Guillermo Del Toro, and red carpet and backstage winners interviews from the Children’s Awards.

2.7.3 Future Plans

The Directors of BPL are actively reviewing the future of the company, in line with the strategy of the BAFTA group as a whole. Assuming that the company will continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, the future plans are:
— To ensure greater involvement in the broadcast of our Awards;
— To seek further co-production opportunities with broadcasters;
— To provide exciting online video content to support BAFTA’s charitable goals;
— To develop ongoing synergy between BAFTA Productions, the BAFTA Archive and BAFTA Publishing, to generate a wealth of high quality content in a variety of formats for a wider public audience.

- To establish partnerships with major arts Festivals to increase distribution

What we achieved
- All members received five issues of ACADEMY magazine, the Arab World weekend brochure, the Annual Review and the Film Awards 09 Prequel magazine
- Arab World weekend brochure was distributed at both our 195 event and one of the ‘Arab World on Tour’ venues in Liverpool
- ACADEMY magazine distributed at key regional events including Encounters Festival in Bristol
- Insertion of ACADEMY mag into delegate bags at three major UK Film and TV festivals, reaching an additional 6,000 more industry practitioners

Our objectives
- To deliver three first-class Awards broadcasts, taking greater creative control of each

What we achieved
- We delivered two first-class Awards broadcasts for our Film and Television Awards, reaching 8.8million viewers in the UK
- Our Film Awards broadcast was sold to more than 40 countries

As there were no Video Games Awards presented in 2008, we were unable to reach our viewing figures target.

Details of total income and charitable expenditure can be found in Section 3.1.
3.1 Review of financial position

3.1.1 Audience reach
A key priority for the charity is to expand its audience reach for its range of charitable activities. The largest audience reach is achieved through the television broadcast of our Awards ceremonies where 8.8 million viewers were reached in 2008. Our online audience is growing and bafta.org attracted almost 700,000 unique visitors in 2008. Audience attendance at the events programme in the UK increased by 27,417 in 2008 but many of these events were recorded and webcast reaching a further 180,000 people. The press and media coverage around the Film and Television Awards reaches many people in 2008, the Film Awards television programme was sold to 49 countries, increasing our potential audience reach to many millions. The pursuit of new audiences for our events and activities through a variety of media will remain a priority in 2009.

3.1.2 Income and expenditure

Income received in the 12 months to 31 December 2008 was £8,650,834, an increase of 4% on the prior year. The increase was primarily achieved through increased income from hiring 195 Piccadilly to corporate clients, a good income stream generated around our Awards ceremonies and increased membership subscriptions revenue following an assessment of the value of the membership fee.

Other significant revenue streams include sponsorship and broadcast fees (included under Awards on the SOFA). Although this was down 9% on the prior year, this is largely due to the re-timing of our Video Games Awards ceremony, which has been moved to March 2009. The effect of this is also reflected in the reduction in income and expenditure on Awards, which was down 6% and 4%, respectively. However the income generated from the Awards that did take place exceeded budget.

Corporate Partnership revenue increased to £217,917 representing a 78% rise on the prior year and exceeding budget. This followed an assessment of the value of the partnership, prompting a re-launch of the scheme mid-2007.

Income secured to commence the new Learning Programme includes £50,000 donated from E!, and used to fund the new mentoring project, supporting BAFTA members to work with young people from disadvantaged backgrounds on creative projects.

Expenditure on charitable activities increased in total by 7% to £4,502,612, despite our Video Games Awards not taking place. Significant increases in charitable expenditure came from the new Learning Programme and work on our archive. Expenditure on the new Learning Programme was £320,473 which is comprised of both general and designated expenditure.

Revenue from Public events is comprised of ticket sales and contributions to the cost of staging events, and is down £16,045 on the prior year. This is due to the cancellation of the annual David Lean lecture, which will be restored to the calendar of events in 2009. The income and expenditure on this event is funded by a grant from the David Lean Foundation, and is placed in a restricted fund. The 13% reduction in expenditure on Public events is also due to the combination of the cancelled David Lean Lecture, and the focus being on the launch of the Learning Programme in 2008.

On 1 July 2008, all staff of the group were transferred from the trading subsidiary; BAFTA Management Ltd to the British Academy of Film and Television Arts.

Net income for the year was £418,471, down £23,406 on the prior year. A decision on the future plans for this surplus will be taken by the Board. Prior year surpluses have been used to create designated funds for future projects, to repay a portion of the overdraft, and to be maintained on reserve.

3.1.3 Balance sheet
The year-end position was a net assets position of £3,038,877.

Between 2007 and 2008, tangible fixed assets of the group reduced by £71,379. This is comprised of additions totaling £425,032, disposals of £193,897 and net depreciation charged of £302,514.

Significant fixed asset additions in the year included £127,321 on the creation of a Mezzanine floor at our head offices, £45,466 of additions fitting out the new staff offices, and £118,071 of technical equipment from which revenue will be generated through hire to corporate clients.

Fixed asset disposals arose following the move to new staff offices in June 2008, and in accordance with the company renewals policy.

On 1 July 2008, a number of non-leasehold assets of the group were transferred at cost less accumulated depreciation from the trading subsidiary; BAFTA Management Ltd to the British Academy of Film and Television Arts.

Cash balances rose by £1,561,477 (including overdrafts) in the year, which is largely due to timing of the receipt of sponsorship and broadcast revenue for the 2009 Film Awards. This is also reflected in the increase in deferred income included in creditors, and the reduction in debtors at year end.

3.1.4 Restricted funds
Throughout the year, the company had four restricted funds, each for a specific project. Notes 19 and 20 on pages 31-32 provides detail on the restricted funds and the amounts charged in the year.
3.1 Review of financial position continued

3.1.5 Designated reserves
During the year, the trustees agreed that a number of designated funds be created for specific projects. Notes 19 and 20 on pages 31-32 provide detail on the designated funds created and the amounts charged in the year.

3.2 Risk management
The charity employs a comprehensive risk management structure. A detailed risk register is reviewed on a monthly basis by senior management and action points are reviewed and discussed by our Finance & Audit Committee at every meeting. Matters perceived to carry greater risk are discussed by the Board of Trustees. This formal process exists to assess business risk and support the risk management strategy.

Operational, financial, governance and environmental/external risk are examined regularly along with compliance with law and regulations. As a result, the charity has built up a comprehensive risk register with risk areas, both in terms of its likelihood of occurrence and its impact, categorised using a traffic light system.

Significant areas of risk identified and closely monitored include:
— The risk that the charity may not be able to expand its activities as planned due to the loss of a key income stream
— Health and Safety risks arising from the activities of staff and volunteers pursuing our charitable aims
— Security of our Awards nominations and winners in advance of announcement

All major risks to which the charity is exposed, which have been identified with these procedures, are regularly assessed and monitored. Systems have been implemented to manage these risks, and these are continually developed and enhanced.

3.3 Financial policies

3.3.1 Reserves policy
The trustees regularly review the charity’s reserves. This review encompasses the nature of the income and expenditure streams, the need to match variable income with fixed commitments and the nature of the reserves.

Unrestricted general funds usually arise from the previous years surpluses and are allocated for expenditure, or to a designated reserve. Designated reserves created in 2008 have been allocated to investment in capital projects and the development of the Learning Programme.

It has been concluded that to allow the charity to be managed efficiently and to provide a buffer, a reserve equivalent to 6 months charitable expenditure should be maintained. At the year end, the group’s unrestricted reserves were £2,653,997 (2007: £2,233,377) which equates to approximately 7 months of charitable expenditure. Restricted funds were £384,880 (2007: £387,029). Note 1 on page 22 explains the principle of fund accounting.

4.3 Methods adopted for recruitment and appointment of new trustees continued
The officers are elected to such positions by the elected members of the sector committees. In addition, the Board may choose to co-opt up to four members, selected for their skills and experience. The constitution also includes provisions for rotation and retirement of Board members.

4.4 Policies and procedures for induction and training of trustees
All newly elected trustees receive training to ensure that they are fully aware of their duties and responsibilities to the charity. This takes the form of a briefing session with the charity’s lawyers and the presentation of the Academy information pack known as the BAFTA Bible. The Board also receives regular updates from the charity’s lawyers, which includes any relevant changes to charity law and its practical application. In addition, the charity’s governance and procedures are reviewed and documented annually and issued to all trustees.

4.5 Register of interests
The Trustee register of interests is available for inspection on application to the Company Secretary.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the company and the group’s state of affairs at the end of the period and of the surplus or deficit of the group for the period. In preparing the financial statements trustees are required to:

— select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
— make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
— state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
— prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the company or the group will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the group and to enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Companies Act 1985. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the group and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities.

Information provided to Auditors
Each of the Academy’s trustees on the approval date of this report confirms that:

— So far as each trustee is aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company’s auditors are unaware; and
— the trustee has taken all steps that he/she ought to have taken as a trustee in order to make himself/herself aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company’s auditors are aware of that information.

This confirmation is given and should be interpreted in accordance with the provisions of s234ZA of the Companies Act 1985.

This report has been approved by the Board of Trustees and signed on their behalf by

David Parfitt, Chairman of the Academy
02 June 2009
We have audited the group and parent company financial statements of The British Academy of Film and Television Arts for the year ended 31 December 2008 set out on pages 19 to 33. These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out therein.

This report is made solely to the charitable company’s members, as a body, in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company’s members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor’s report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the company’s members as a body, or our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

The trustees’ (who are also directors of The British Academy of Film and Television Arts for the purpose of company law) responsibilities for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) are set out in the Statement of Trustees Responsibilities.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (United Kingdom and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if in our opinion the information given in the Report of the Trustees is consistent with the financial statements.

In addition we report to you if, in our opinion, the charitable company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit or if information specified by law regarding trustees’ remuneration and other transactions with the charity is not disclosed.

We read other information contained in the Annual Report and consider whether it is consistent with the audited financial statements. The other information comprises only the Report of the Trustees and the Chairman’s Statement. We consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements or material inconsistencies within the financial statements. Our responsibilities do not extend to other information.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (United Kingdom and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgments made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charitable company’s circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Opinion

In our opinion:

— the financial statements give a true and fair view, in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice, of the state of the affairs of the charitable company and of the group as at 31 December 2008 and of the group’s incoming resources and application of resources, including the group’s income and expenditure, for the year then ended;

— the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985; and

— the information given in the Report of the Trustees is consistent with the financial statements.

NET FUNDS AT 31 DECEMBER 2008: 2,976,405 £ (2008) and 904,462 £ (2007)
1. Accounting policies

Basis of preparation
The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985, the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP), “Accounting and Reporting by Charities” published in March 2005, and applicable accounting standards.

Company status
The charity is a company limited by guarantee. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member of the charity.

Group financial statements
These financial statements consolidate the results of the charity and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, BAFTA Management Limited, and BAFTA Productions Limited on a line-by-line basis. A separate statement of financial activities, or income and expenditure account, for the charity itself is not presented as the charity has taken advantage of the exemptions afforded by S.230 of the Companies Act 1985 and paragraph 397 of SORP 2005.

Fund accounting
General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes. Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that have been set aside by the trustees for particular purposes. The aim and use of each designated fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements. Restricted funds are funds subject to specific restrictive conditions imposed by donors or by the purpose of the appeal.

Incoming resources
All incoming resources are included in the SOFA when the charity obtains the right to consideration and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies apply to categories of income:

Donated Services and facilities are included at the value to the charity where this can be quantified. No amounts are included in the financial statements for services donated by volunteers.

Gifts in Kind are included at current market value where their value is ascertainable and material. The estimated valuation of gifts in kind is based on the value of the contribution to the charity, or the valuation the charity would have had to pay to acquire the assets.

Where grants are related to performance and specific deliverables, these are accounted for as the charity earns the right to consideration by its performance. Where income is received in advance of performance it is deferred and included in creditors. Where entitlement occurs before income is received, this is accrued. Otherwise, grants and donations are recognised when they become receivable.

Resources expended
All expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category.

Support costs, which include the central office functions such as general management, budgeting, accounting, information technology, and financing are allocated across the categories of charitable expenditure, governance costs and the costs of generating funds. The basis of the cost allocation has been explained in the notes to the accounts.

Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

i) Building and facilities costs are allocated on the basis of the use of the building;

ii) Other overhead areas have been allocated on the basis of employee time.

Cost of generating funds
Fundraising costs are those incurred in seeking voluntary contributions and do not include the costs of disseminating information in support of the charitable activities.

Charitable activities
Costs of charitable activities comprise all costs identified as wholly or mainly attributable to achieving the charitable objects of the charity. These costs include staff costs, wholly or mainly attributable support costs and an apportionment of general overheads.

Governance costs
Governance costs comprise all costs identified as wholly or mainly attributable to ensuring the public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation. These costs include external audit, trustee costs and costs incurred in strategic review.

Purchased goodwill
Goodwill, representing the excess of the purchase price compared with the fair value of net assets acquired, is capitalised and written off evenly over 20 years, as in the opinion of the trustees, this represents the period over which the goodwill is effective.
1. Accounting policies continued

Tangible fixed assets
Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost including any incidental expenses of acquisition. Depreciation is provided against all tangible fixed assets at rates calculated to write off the cost over their expected useful economic lives as follows:

- Technical equipment: 25% reducing balance
- Furniture and equipment: 20% straight line
- Leasehold improvements: 10% or over the period of the lease
- Computer equipment: 33.3% straight line (included within furniture & equipment)

Stocks
Stocks are valued at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Provision is made for obsolescence as appropriate.

Pension costs
The group contributes a defined amount to Specified Personal Policies taken out by eligible employees. Contributions are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities as incurred.

Operating leases
Costs relating to operating leases are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities over the life of the lease.

Deferred taxation is provided in full on timing differences that result in an obligation at the balance sheet date to pay more tax, or a right to pay less tax, at a future date, at rates expected to apply when they crystallise based on current tax rates and law. Timing differences arise from the inclusion of items of income and expenditure in taxation computations in periods different from those in which they are included in financial statements. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is regarded as more likely than not that they will be recovered. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not discounted.

On 1 January 2002, the David Lean BAFTA Foundation donated its investment in BAFTA Management Limited to the British Academy of Film and Television Arts. The goodwill which arose on this donation is being amortised over 20 years. The trustees of the charity review the amortisation period each year to confirm it remains appropriate in the light of the returns expected to be generated from the investment.

British Academy of Film and Television Arts
17. Members’ liability
The charity does not have a share capital and is limited by guarantee. In the event of the charity being wound up, the maximum amount that each member is liable to contribute is £1. At 31 December 2008 there were approximately 4,902 (2007: 4,792) members.

18. Related party transactions
The following officers and members of the Board of Trustees were also directors and trustees during the year of The David Lean BAFTA Foundation:
Lord Attenborough, Kt CBE
Hilary Bevan Jones
Michael Grade, CBE
Michael Harris
Duncan Kenworthy, OBE
David Parfitt
Simon Relph, CBE

This charity shares with the David Lean BAFTA Foundation similar objectives, principal contact address and administration function.

A grant of £17,500 was pledged, but unpaid during the year from the David Lean BAFTA Foundation to commence the new fundraising strategy (2007: £30,000 Archive Digitisation grant).

No donations were received from The David Lean Foundation in 2008 (2007: £20,000).

In 2007, a loan of £250,000 was made by BAFTA to BAFTA Management Limited. This was an arms length transaction on commercial terms and interest of £11,346 was charged in 2008 (2007: £16,900). Following the transfer of a number of group non-leasehold assets on 1 July 2008, the outstanding balance on this loan was reduced to £81,889.

The Raising the Roof Restricted Fund represents monies received for the development and refurbishment of the facilities at 195 Piccadilly.

The Archive Digitisation Restricted Fund represents monies received from the David Lean BAFTA Foundation to commence digitisation of the Academy’s Archive. The fund was spent during the year.

The Educational Event Restricted Fund represents monies received from The David Lean Foundation and must be used to fund specific events held during the year.
The Fundraising Strategy Restricted Fund represents monies received from The David Lean BAFTA Foundation and must be used to fund the implementation of our fundraising strategy.

The Learning & Events Designated Fund represents monies received from E! Entertainment, and revenue allocated from prior year surpluses, to support The Academy’s mentoring project, supporting BAFTA members to work with young people from disadvantaged backgrounds on creative projects, and other projects working with young people in and outside schools, families and communities programmes.

The 195 Capital projects and activities fund represents revenues allocated from prior year surpluses to fund capital projects at 195 Piccadilly, including the creation of a Mezzanine floor in 2008, and to advance the digitisation of the Academy’s archive, commenced in 2007 with a grant from the David Lean BAFTA Foundation.
