AND BENEFITING THE PUBLIC.

As the only Anglo-American professional organization founded to promote and advance original work in film, television and interactive media, The British Academy of Film and Television Arts Los Angeles serves as a link between the Hollywood and British production and entertainment business communities.

A California non-profit public benefit corporation, BAFTA Los Angeles is a local organization with a global reach. As the L.A. branch of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts, headquartered in London, we represent not only our 1,200 members, but the full 6,500 Academy members based in the United Kingdom, New York and Los Angeles.

Membership in the Academy is both highly sought after and highly exclusive – applicants must be proposed and seconded by existing Academy members and thus represent the very top professionals in their various fields; from award winning writers, actors and directors, to key managers, network and studio executives and agents.

We host stellar parties and awards ceremonies, honoring achievement in film and television, and produce educational events and seminars for our membership.

But we also seek to form a bridge between our industry and the wider community, offering scholarships, student film awards, high school Shakespeare workshops, inner-city screening programs and parties, putting our membership's incredible expertise to astounding effect in the Los Angeles community.

BAFTA Los Angeles presents a year-round program of over 100 SCREENINGS of the most recent film releases, selected television programs and classic films.

As the 1,200 members of BAFTA Los Angeles are eligible to vote in the prestigious Orange British Academy Film Awards, film studios and distributors work with the Academy to ensure our members see the films throughout the year.

Many screenings are followed by a private Question and Answer session where directors and actors discuss their behind-the-scenes experiences of the movie – a further indication of the industry's high regard for the Academy.

As company members, sponsors are invited to attend all of our screenings and events along with our voting members, offering unique insights into Hollywood mechanics as well as great networking possibilities.

GIVING BACK

INNER CITY CINEMA / SHAKESPEARE IN THE HOOD / STUDENT FILM AWARDS
HELEN KELLER PARK HOLIDAY PARTY / INNER CITY SCHOLARSHIPS

Working with the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Mayor's Office and Gang Reduction Development, BAFTA Los Angeles and Warner Bros. Pictures and Home Video provided free SUMMER SCREENINGS of entertaining family films to over 3,500 people in 6 county parks and 24 city parks around Los Angeles over nine weeks.

INNER CITY CINEMA is a thriving program which regularly provides free screenings of contemporary and classic films to over 200 people and brings filmmakers to speak with the families in South Los Angeles.

BAFTA LA's SCHOLARSHIP program has been the cornerstone of its charitable efforts since its founding. Our scholars have often gone onto incredibly successful careers. In 2012, we launched an ambitious new Scholarship designed to help a student through a full 3 year graduate program.

Ever since the free screenings began at Helen Keller Park, BAFTA Los Angeles has been hosting a HOLIDAY CHRISTMAS PARTY for the neighborhood. What started with 200 people attending has grown into an annual daylong event bringing together up to 3,000.

The HERITAGE ARCHIVE has produced and preserved in-depth interviews with many film and television professionals who have had a substantial career in the British film and television industry.

The library currently includes over 80 oneon-one, on camera interviews with British talent including Ken Annakin, Michael Caine, Derek Jacobi, Ken Loach, Ian McKellan, Malcolm McDowell, John Mills, Helen Mirren, Roger Moore, Ronnie Neame, Alan Parker, Ken Russell, John Schlesinger, Jim Sheridan and Michael York.
