If you have been a member of BAFTA in the past or are currently a member of one of our branches, please give details here:

SECTION 6: REFERENCES

Candidates who have not been nominated for or won a BAFTA must be proposed and seconded by current Full members of BAFTA. This section should be completed by the proposer and seconder.

Note to proposers and seconds: new members have the opportunity to help shape the Academy's future. It is vitally important to the integrity of the Academy that the privilege of proposing new members be used responsibly; members should only propose applicants who they feel have made a significant contribution to their industry and are qualified by their professional experience to vote in our Awards ceremonies. Members may propose one applicant and second one other in each membership year.
